POCKET-SIZED HALL OF FAME

HOW DO YOU make playing cards better? Just add pictures of the game's greatest players. Legends International Ice Hockey Trumps Game is a new card game from Switzerland featuring 40 eye-catching illustrations of the best players from around the world. Lifetime statistics are included for key stats like games, points per game, penalty minutes and international tournaments won. The rules are easy. You play a "trumps" game, where the highest (or lowest) value of a given stat wins the hand. Or you play a "quartets" game where you try to get four players from the same country. Got any Finns? Go fish! What is sweet about these cards are the original illustrations, which range from realistic to odd to absurd. (legendenquartett.ch) – SAL BARRY

EYE ON THE PRIZE FOR THE SMART FAN

SPORTS FANS DEEM themselves to be incredibly knowledgeable, but what happens when they're actually put to the test? The new Fanseye app has the platform to answer such a question. Join the community and you'll have the chance to weigh in on the performances of NHLers, gaining points based on credibility and engagement from others. Can you rise to the level of expert? "The long-term goal is to make a game out of getting those titles," said frontman Frank Provenzano.

A former assistant GM with the Washington Capitals and Dallas Stars, Provenzano knows the scouting business, and Fanseye has several features that will have the most serious hockey fans trying to prove themselves to be top of the class. (fanseyesports.com) – RYAN KENNEDY

KICK IT OLD SCHOOL

THIS IS A game Slap Shot fans can be proud of. Old Time Hockey brings the player back in time to the late 1970s when afros were in, players didn't wear helmets, and fists ruled the ice. V7 Entertainment, a Vancouver-based startup, wanted to make a game that brings the aggressiveness of hockey's past to life, which includes fighting, hitting, stick swinging and bench-clearing brawls. It includes a story mode that follows a struggling team in the Bush Hockey League, where all sorts of hijinks ensue. The game features a "beer mode" allowing the player to use the controller in one hand and hold a beverage in the other. Old Time Hockey will be available to PS4, Xbox One and Steam users in early 2017. It also comes with a signed Price jersey, souvenir booklet and a numbered certificate, personalized and signed by the goaltender.

The starting prices for these trucks range from $64,995 to $69,995, but you better act fast, Price fans. There are only 100 trucks made, with each of them numbered from one to 100. (careypriceedition.com) – ADAM KIRSHENBLATT
